

Options tailored to your needs

Offering ever more services and luxuries, facilitating your professional and personal travel alike, making your life easier. These are the goals MK Partnair strives to achieve.

Whether in the sky or on land, we offer a variety of services tailored to your specific needs.

Whether you wish to organize a teleconference on your flight, or prefer to spend your time on board relaxing with a glass of your favorite wine, every detail will be carefully arranged to guarantee you the best service possible and make each trip a unique experience.

Because the flight makes for only a part of your voyage, we also offer comprehensive travel planning customized according to your specific needs.

Reserving your hotel, procuring a chauffeured vehicle, or even providing a personal security detail, we will save you the trouble of organizing the logistics so you can focus on the essentials.

Meeting your expectations is our mission, contributing to your success is our leitmotif, making your voyage an unforgettable experience is our satisfaction.
